The answer is GADAVIST!!!!

What is GADAVIST?

Per the Bayer HealthCare Pharmaceuticals Inc. package insert:

“Gadavist is a gadolinium-based contrast agent indicated for intravenous use in diagnostic MRI in adults and children (2 years of age and older) to detect and visualize areas with disrupted blood brain barrier (BBB) and/or abnormal vascularity of the central nervous system.”

(GBCA's): Gadolinium-Based Contrast Agents are intravenous drugs used in diagnostic imaging procedures to enhance the quality of magnetic resonance imaging (MRI)

When is a lawful right not a right in the State of Nevada?

When the district court (Eighth Judicial District Court in Las Vegas) and the Supreme Court of Nevada unlawfully disregard the law, that's when.

Suppose you were wrongfully indicted on trumped up felony charges and your attorney of record didn't bother to inform you that you had a lawful right to testify on your own behalf at the Grand Jury. Now, further suppose you filed several motions in the district court to have the Grand Jury reconvene under NRS 172.241(5) which basically states if you weren't given reasonable or adequate notice of the Grand Jury that it MUST be ordered to reconvene and deliberate and, in turn, the district court denied your motions. Now what?

So, you file a petition for a writ of mandamus to the Supreme Court of Nevada to have them order the district order do their job, but they (a 3 member panel out of the 7 justices), in turn, deny your petition citing CIVIL LAW as binding authority instead of CRIMINAL CASE LAW. You then file another petition, calling for a "rehearing" on what amounts to a 'second' chance at justice only to have that egregiously denied without an explanation (by the same corrupt 3 member panel). Not one to give up, you file for a "reconsideration" for the third and final chance for justice with the entire Supreme Court of Nevada (attempting in the process to disqualify those same 3 corrupt members that denied your writ and rehearing petition). That's where I'm at right now with my wife and I.
